African-American Achievers

The East Biloxi Unit was fortunate to have two notable guest speakers in January.

Mr. Eugene Poole, Jr. visited with members and spoke about his career. Mr. Poole serves as the Architect of the United States Capitol Building/Dome. He was in Biloxi as the Guest of Honor and speaker at Negrotto's Art Gallery's 8th Annual Afro-American Arts Festival.

Karen Sock, GM of Margaretville Casino spoke to our teens about their future career and how higher education and positive relationships are vital to one's success. Mrs. Sock was the first female African-American General Manager of a Casino

Youth of the Month Mercedes Taliencich

Mercedes Taliencich is in the 6th grade at Biloxi Jr. High. She is an honor roll student and a member of the Student Council. Mercedes also plays the oboe in the school band. One day she hopes to become a professional oboe player or perhaps an author. Mercedes likes coming to the Club because she is able to participate in her favorite activity, Art. She also likes helping all of her teachers.
